Self Access Centers

Abstract: Presenters from universities with active self-access centers (conversational lounges, writing centers, etc) will speak about what it takes to set up, administer and get your students to effectively use them. Brett Milliner and Travis Coyte will present on a tutorial service recently established at Tamagawa University, in particular looking at communication and using data collection to inform decisions. Darrell Wilkinson will present on the conversation, writing and tutorial centers available at Soka University. Bob Morrison from Kanda University of International Studies will describe their self-access centre, its curriculum, advisors, materials and activities, looking at how they can be adapted to participants' own contexts.

Coming Soon:

September 21: Conference Preview. Call open for presenters . If you have prepared a talk/poster for the National conference in October, come along and practice/share it with us.

November 16: Negotiating the discipline: Writing for publication in TEFL/TESL by Theron Muller

December 21: My Share and Party. Call open for 10-15 minute practical presentations.
